

Subj: {First Name}, Master Sha needs your help

Dear {First Name},

I could use your help... do you have a few moments to spread the word about something new?

First of all, I want to thank you for your support, {First Name}. You've been such a loyal friend, and it has truly been a blessing to me and to all of my associates that we have so many followers like you who are enthusiastic about spiritual, emotional and physical healing.

I wanted to include you in a new FREE healing initiative—one that we hope will spread the word about the power of soul healing to those most in need.

Here's what we're doing, and how you can help...

My associates have been working hard to create a new landing page that offers a free copy of my new e-book, "Top Ten Healing Secrets," as well as a large selection of videos (you may have viewed some of these), a soul song, and a telephone conference—all at no charge.

People who respond (we just need their name and email address) will receive all of these free resources, plus my weekly newsletter. Please check out the offering here: [landing page link], and tell me what you think, {First Name}.

Even though you're already on our mailing list, I want you to have access to this free offering as well—so please feel free to sign up.

But here's where you can REALLY help us get the word out... by referring the site to your friends or family members whom you believe could benefit. I'm sure you know someone who is suffering—and could really use these free resources. Please help us spread the word any way you can.

You can promote the page on your Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter or social bookmarking profiles (and we've embedded easy links for sharing on the landing page). Remember, this is free content—absolutely no costs are involved.

Here's are some sample "Tweets" you can cut and paste into your Twitter and other social media profile updates:
